Please Support the Westchester County Bar Foundation's Fellowship Program!

BY ANTHONY J. ENEA, ESQ.

President

Westchester County Bar Foundation

On November 15, 2017, at the Coveleigh Club in Rye, New York, the Westchester County Bar Foundation (WCBF) will be hosting its 7th Annual Fundraiser.

We are honored and privileged to have as our honorees, the Hon. Alan D. Scheinkman, the Administrative Judge for the 9th Judicial District; and Charles J. Newman of the Charles J. Newman Company. Two gentlemen who have been long time supporters of the Bench and Bar in Westchester County and our Foundation.

For almost ten years the primary charitable endeavor of the WCBF has been its Fellowship Program. The Fellowship Program allows the WCBF to finance the salary of a newly admitted public interest attorney, selected by the WCBF for two years. Our fellow is then placed by the WCBF with a local not-for-profit organization selected by the WCBF that provides legal services to underprivileged and indigent individuals and families in Westchester County. The services are most commonly provided in immigration law, employment law, family law and landlord-tenant law.

Since September of 2015 our Fellow, Jennifer Pacheco, has been a practicing attorney with the Hudson Valley Justice Center of Yonkers, New York. Our newly selected fellow, Luis Leon, has recently graduated from the Elizabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University in White Plains. Commencing in September, he will be our fellow for two years to The Westchester Hispanic Coalition in White Plains.

Luis's fellowship will focus on serving the underprivileged and indigent in the areas of immigration law and employment law. He fol-

PAST WCBF FELLOWS

I am grateful to the Fellowship's supporters for the continued success the Fellowship has had in providing legal services and cultivating young attorneys. The Fellowship will enable me to practice law in the area of public interest, specifically in Immigration Law. Now, more than ever, immigrants need advocates that can adequately and zealously safeguard their rights.

— Luis Leon, 2017–2019 WCBF Fellow

lows in the footsteps of five other WCBF fellows who combined have provided thousands of hours of legal service to the underprivileged and indigent of Westchester. This has been made possible because of the generosity of Westchester's Legal Community and its supporters.

Once again I urge you to be in attendance on November 15, 2017 to lend your support to a cause which has placed the Westchester County Bar at the forefront of local Bar Associations in the realm of community service and outreach. For those of you who have never attended this event I urge you to do so. It is an event Westchester's legal community can take great pride in. It is a truly entertaining and collegial evening.

There are many ways that you and your firm can help the WCBF achieve its goal of financing a fellow for two years, including the following:

1. Purchase a ticket for yourself and/or purchase a table for your firm or company;
2. Tell your friends and colleagues about the fundraiser and encourage them to attend;
3. Be a sponsor. We have many levels of sponsorship available starting from as low as $750.00 to as high as $3,000.00;
4. Donate any professional and/or college baseball, football, basketball, and hockey tickets for our silent auction;
5. Donate gift certificates for restaurants, spas, beauty salons and/or your favorite stores for our silent auction;
6. Donate baskets of wine, liquors, chocolates, specialty food products for our silent auction; and
7. Donate a stay at your vacation home, condo, or time share.

Any way you can help, whether large or small, will go a long way in making the evening a financial success and help ensure that our fellowship program will continue for years to come.

I look forward to seeing you on November 15th!

Please see page 3 for Benefit sponsor and registration information.
